Students obtain their personal access codes (username and password) for the University web services from the Secretariat upon registration in the Department.

ATTENTION: Student personal access codes are required for a number of important functions throughout one's University studies (access to the Secretariat information system, order of course textbooks, etc.) therefore they must be kept safe and/or memorised.