

Institutional framework and health system organization - 7.5 ECTS

Petros Tsantilas

Course Description

The course examines the current institutional framework for the organization and operation of the health system. Specifically, it analyzes the institutionalization and the structural organization of the NHS, it examines the constitutional obligations of the health system and the right to health protection and presents recent legislation on hospitals procurement and public health.

Objectives

- Understanding of the constitutional dimensions of the right to health
- Understanding of the fundamental principles of health legislation
- Understanding of the institutional and administrative organization of the National Health System

Learning outcomes

- Ability for theoretical analysis
- Knowledge of NHS
- Comparative analysis of the National Health System

Structure

Seven (7) three-hour lectures

Students' assessment

Written exams

Bibliography

Γκόλνα Χ., Κοντιάδης Ξ., Σουλιώτης Κ., (επιμ) (2005), Φαρμακευτική πολιτική στην Ελλάδα και την Ευρώπη, Αθήνα: Παπαζήση.

Ζηλιδης Χ., (2005), Αρχές και εφαρμογές πολιτικής υγείας: η μεταρρύθμιση 2000-4, MediForce, Αθήνα.

Κοντιάδης Ξ., (2004), Συνταγματικές εγγυήσεις και θεσμική οργάνωση του συστήματος κοινωνικής ασφάλειας, Αθήνα: Σάκκουλας.

Κοντιάδης Ξ., Σουλιώτης Κ., (2005), Σύγχρονες προκλήσεις στην πολιτική υγείας, Αθήνα: Σάκκουλα.

Davies H., Tavakoli M., Health Care Policy, (2004) Performance and Finance: Strategic Issues in Health Care Management, Farnham: Ashgate.